

Center for the Arts at Kayenta Visual Art Exhibitions

On behalf of Center for the Arts at Kayenta, the Desert Spirit Art Committee organizes three themed visual art exhibits each season in the Main Lobby of the the Center for the Arts at Kayenta (CFAK). The Committee seeks new artwork from established and emerging regional artists that reflects artistic excellence in execution, originality, and composition.

ARTWORK SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- An artist may submit no more than two (2) original artworks for consideration (giclées, serigraphs, and/or other commercial reproductions are not accepted).
- All submissions must be of recent work.
- The submission fee is $5 per artwork (cash or check only, fees are non-refundable).
- All artworks should be titled (“Untitled” is not an acceptable title).
- Any artwork intended for hanging on a wall (including textiles and ceramics) must have the appropriate wire hanger(s) to safely accommodate the weight of the artwork. CFAK is not responsible for damage or repairs if the artwork does not meet this requirement.

EXHIBITION JURY

- For each exhibit, artwork is juried by two professional artists for inclusion in the exhibition. The jury members are different for each exhibit, allowing for varied perspectives and aesthetic tastes in the selection.
- A “Juror’s Award” will be presented at the Opening Reception.
- If your artwork is not selected, it must be picked up prior to the exhibit opening date. CFAK is not responsible for uncollected artwork.

ARTWORK SALES

- All artwork must be available for purchase. CFAK retains a 25% commission on each purchase.
- CFAK manages all artwork purchases and issues checks to the artist once the exhibit has closed.
- Artwork sold during the exhibit may not be removed from the premises until the exhibit has closed.
- CFAK does not facilitate shipping any artwork. It is artist’s responsibility to negotiate shipping any artwork with a buyer.

PUBLICITY

- Photographs of artwork may be used for publicity on the CFAK website or other advertising venues for promotional purposes. Artists will be appropriately credited if their artwork is used for publicity.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DAMAGE & INSURANCE COVERAGE

- CFAK shall be responsible for the safekeeping of all artwork while on the premises.
- CFAK shall be liable to the artist for loss or damage (except for damage resulting in flaws inherent in the artwork) to the following percentage breakdown, of the artist’s commission, had the artworks sold: 50% coverage $1 - $999; 75% coverage $1,000 - $1,999; 95% coverage $2,000 and above.

DELIVERY & COLLECTION OF ARTWORK (Shipping artwork to or from CFAK is not allowed)

- Artwork must be delivered, in person, to CFAK on the predetermined submission date.
- Under no circumstance can any artwork be collected from CFAK prior to the predetermined pickup date.
- All artwork must be collected, in person, from CFAK on the predetermined pickup date. This includes artwork that was sold during the exhibition. CFAK is not responsible for uncollected artwork.

By submitting your artwork for consideration to the CFAK Visual Art Exhibitions you understand and agree to the information above. The Jury is not accountable for submissions that do not adhere to the requirements and information as stated, and have the right to reject them on that basis.
